CAUTIONS FOR USING THE TOR BROWSER

Malware threats	Adopt the same precautions for malware here as you would elsewhere
Unable to connect	The website may be down temporarily or permanently
"This site has been seized"	Valid FBI warning indicating the website will be down permanently
"HTML5 canvas image data"	Popup request for identifying your computer system; say "no" to the request
https://panopticklick.eff.org	Use this website while using the Tor browser to test your browser image

Since December 2014, the Dark Web has undergone significant changes due to law enforcement activities, including the shutting down of hundreds of illegal and scam websites, and IT advancements that mitigate Tor anonymity. The following websites have been confirmed as active or inactive. Some of these sites may no longer be available, so be sure to check back for updated versions of this quick reference sheet.
